Why a Diversity and Inclusion Scholarship?

<https://www.uidaho.edu/cnr/about/diversity-and-inclusion>

The University of Idaho welcomes and respects all people. Diversity and inclusion are the core of our community and we embrace them as our guiding principles. We know that complex issues are best addressed by a diverse group of perspectives, experiences and values.

How do you know if you qualify for the MFC Diversity and Inclusion Scholarship?

The scholarship committee considers diversity in individuals as demonstrated by a variety of factors, including but not limited to those who identify as people of color, first generation college students, low socio-economic status, women, LGBTQ+, and/or people with disabilities. If you can speak to any of the above identities or others, please consider applying.

How to apply.

To be considered for a scholarship, please email Leslie Dorsey ldorsey@uidaho.edu before April 30th a statement answering the following:

Please, share a little about your identity and how the completion of this program can help you achieve your goals.

Statements should be one page or less, 12-point font with minimum 1” margins. Scholarships will be announced June 1st or rolling as filled and will be applied as a credit on your University bill.
